Keynote Speakers

Schedule

Michael R. Milner, DHSc, PA-C

RADM Milner is the Regional Health Administrator for the New England states (Region I). RADM Milner serves as Chief Professional Officer and represents 1100 officers of the Health Services category of the Commissioned Corps of the U.S. Public Health Service for the Office of the Surgeon General. His regional portfolio includes the Offices of Women's Health, Minority Health, Family Planning (Title X), the HIV/AIDS Regional Resource Network and the Medical Reserve Corps. Additionally, he works closely with the Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response to provide regional leadership for emergency planning, preparedness and response to all-hazards and public health emergencies.

Senator Terry Gerratana

Senator Theresa "Terry" Bielinski Gerratana was elected in a special election on February 22, 2011 to represent the citizens of New Britain, Berlin and Farmington. Practical, down-to-earth and dedicated to bettering the lives of others, Terry's roots in Connecticut's 6th Senatorial District run deep. A lifelong resident, Terry has been involved in her community as a concerned citizen, a volunteer, an organizer, an activist and a legislator for more than two decades. She serves as Co-Chair of the General Assembly's Public Health Committee and Select Committee on Children. While a member of the House of Representatives, she served as Co-Chair of the Human Services Committee.

Please bring non-perishable food items in support of our local food pantries.

CPHA respectfully requests that attendees refrain from wearing colognes and perfumes to this event.
